Camp Ke-Mon-Oya

Summer 2014 Camping Season

Camp Ke-Mon-Oya is nestled in a beautiful, northern setting with thick forests, groomed hiking trails, open fields and a large, pristine lake. Here, campers can make new friends, develop skills, learn about nature, enjoy the outdoors and gain greater knowledge of God.

Are you starting to think about how you want to spend part of your summer? We'd love to have you join us!

To see more pictures of the camp or to download an application form, visit us on-line at www.campkemonoya.com

Location

Camp Ke-Mon-Oya is located approximately 2½ hours from Toronto. Travelling northeast on Hwy 28, the camp is located just outside the town of Apsley, on Chandos Lake, in the Kawartha region of Northern Ontario.

Philosophy

Camp Ke-Mon-Oya is operated by North Toronto Christian School a non-profit, evangelical, non-denominational, Christian school located in North York.

It exists to provide an opportunity for young people to appreciate what God has given them in the world of nature, to learn about themselves and others, and to discover how to function effectively in an unfamiliar environment.

OUR GOAL is to be used by God to reach young people – to help them to develop physically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually.

Spiritual...

- ☛ Morning Worship and Cabin Devotional Time
- ☛ Bible Studies and Discussions
- ☛ Campfires, Singing and Skits

As a registered charity, Camp Ke-Mon-Oya welcomes cash donations and tax receipts are issued for any amount above $15.00.

Staff

The senior staff are all qualified, practising teachers or senior high school or university students. They have many combined years of camping experience with a desire to demonstrate God's love in everyday activities.

Counsellors are carefully selected and must demonstrate maturity, leadership skills, a love for young people and a dedication to Jesus Christ. They supervise the campers, lead cabin activities and teach various skills. All waterfront activities are supervised by qualified lifeguards.

Transportation

There is no charge for transportation to and from the camp. Campers depart from North Toronto Christian School (255 Yorkland Blvd.) each Monday morning at 9 am, returning by 4 pm on Friday.
