

CAMPER'S CHECKLIST

The following is a list of items that are important to bring to camp. We recommend that all belongings be clearly labelled with the camper's full name.

|                         |                          |                       |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------|
| _____ sunscreen         | _____ t-shirts           | _____ water bottle    |
| _____ bug spray         | _____ shorts             | _____ flashlight      |
| _____ hat/cap           | _____ jeans/pants        | _____ toothbrush      |
| _____ sleeping bag      | _____ socks              | _____ toothpaste      |
| _____ pillow            | _____ underwear          | _____ soap, shampoo   |
| _____ pyjamas, slippers | _____ sweaters           | _____ facecloth       |
| _____ swimming suit(s)* | _____ running shoes      | _____ hairbrush       |
| _____ beach towel(s)    | _____ banquet outfit   | _____ pen/pencil      |
| _____ jacket/raincoat   | _____ sandals/flip flops | _____ notebook, Bible |

*Girls are encouraged to bring one-piece bathing suits only.

**A "banquet" is held once a week and campers are encouraged to dress up. Guys may wear a polo or button-up shirt and girls may wear a casual dress, skirt, or dressy shirt.

Note: The camp does not provide for the washing of clothes. Ensure that you bring enough clothing to last for the week.

---

Optional items that you may wish to bring to camp:

|                                |                         |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------|
| _____ $12.00 for camp t-shirt | _____ camera            |
| _____ your own life jacket     | _____ reading materials |
| _____ swimming goggles         | _____ tuck money*       |

*A reasonable amount of tuck money is $15.00

---

PROHIBITED ITEMS

The following items are NOT to be brought to camp:

Knives/Weapons    Fireworks    Pets    Matches    Alcohol    Tobacco

No food is allowed in cabins because of the potential problem of attracting animals, so please do not send or bring food to camp.